17. Any wager determined to have been placed by a person who is prohibited from placing such wager under these rules will not be honored.

18. FireKeepers Sports Book makes every effort to ensure that no errors are made in odds, prices offered or bets accepted. FireKeepers Management reserves the right to correct any obvious or human errors and to void any bets placed where such errors have occurred. Obvious errors include, but are not limited to, odds or prices offered that are clearly incorrect because:

- a. They are posted with odds or prices that are significantly different than odds or prices offered in the general wagering marketplace for a given event or occurrence;
- b. Given the probability of an event occurring (or not occurring) at the time the bet was made including, in either case, because the bet was placed after the start of an event, because the market was not displaying or reflecting in-play status, or because of any other reason constituting an "error".

In such event, FireKeepers' Sports Book management reserves the right to either (i) correct any obvious errors by settling winning bets at the "correct price" as reasonably determined by FireKeepers Sports Book, or (ii) voiding any bet placed where such errors have occurred.

19. FireKeepers Sports Book makes every effort to ensure that events are removed from the offering in a timely manner. If past posting of an event(s) occurs, the Sports Book will void or cancel bets made after the outcome of an event is known.

 - a. Posted odds will be changed automatically on the electronic boards.
 - b. Posted odds will be updated within 10 minutes on the electronic boards or the handwritten boards.
 - c. Non-posted printed media will be updated on a weekly basis with the date of the last issue. Management will accept wagers on currently posted terms unless otherwise posted or noted on printed media.
22. Management determines the minimum and maximum wagers on all events, including on a wager by wager basis. Sports Book management shall set minimum and maximum wager limits for sports events in management's sole discretion, provided, in no event shall Sports Book management set a wager limit lower than $0.01 or in excess of $1 Million for any Sports Book wager. Maximum wager limits for a sports event and/or Sports Book wager may also be determined based on the maximum winning limits and the applicable odds posted for such event and/or wager, so that the actual maximum wager limit may be lower than as set by the Sports Book in the event, due to changing odds, the wager limit would result in a payout that exceeds the maximum payout limit established by the Sports Book pursuant to Section 23.
23. Management may have maximum daily payout limits that apply on a per event basis. Maximum payout limits shall be established at the discretion of Sports Book management. The maximum payout limits refer to the total returns a guest's Sports Book wager(s), excluding such guest's original stake. The maximum payout limits apply to any one guest backing the same combination of selections, regardless of whether or not such wagers are struck separately, at a range of different prices, and/or on different days. If the Sports Book believes that a number of Sports Book wagers have been placed in this way, the total payment of all those wagers combined may, in the Sports Book's sole discretion, be limited to one single maximum payout. If a guest places a Sports Book wager that exceeds the applicable limits for a particular event, the maximum payouts will still apply. If a multiple/parlay Sports Book wager has been placed which involves events with different maximum payout limits, the lowest applicable maximum payout limit will apply to the whole of such multiple wager— for example, if a guest places a multiple Sports Book wager on a golf match, which, for purposes of this example, has a maximum payout limit of $1,000, and on a tennis tournament, which, for purposes of this example, has a maximum payout limit of $3,000, the winnings will be capped at $1,000 and not $3,000.
24. All wagers will be deemed to have been accepted from the individual placing the wager only, and not on behalf of any entity or anyone else.
25. Management reserves the right to withhold payment and to declare bets on an event void if we have evidence that the following has occurred: (i) the integrity of the event has been called into question; or (ii) match-fixing has taken place. Evidence upon which this determination is based may be based on the size, volumes or pattern of bets placed with FireKeepers or based on information from independent integrity monitors or authorized representatives of the relevant sports governing body.
26. Registration may be required to be completed with the Sports Book management prior to placing a sports wager for any employee of a sports governing body or member team who is not prohibited from wagering to register, prior to placing a sports wager.
27. Wagering communications:
 - a. The use of two-way electronics communication devices while you are at the Sports Book counter placing a wager is prohibited.

- b. Wagers can be placed by a Guest within the State of Michigan, as confirmed by Geolocation technology, via the FireKeeper's mobile application (iOS or Android) and/or via the FireKeeper's Sports and Casino web site
 - c. Use of any communication device that is not permitted by regulators, or which blocks or interferes with software that tracks the user's location is prohibited.
- 28. No wagers will be offered or accepted on the following sports or athletic events:
 - a. All athletic events played by individuals that are at the high school level or below, unless a majority of the participants in the sport or athletic event are 18 years of age or older;
 - b. Horse racing if the wagering on a race is pari-mutuel wagering on horse racing;
 - c. Fantasy contests;
 - d. Electronic sports and competitive video games.
- 29. Payoffs over $10,000 may be delayed until completion of applicable tax documents, presentation of valid photo ID and authorization by a supervisor.
- 30. Types of Wagers Offered:
 - a. Straight/Point Spread – A wager on a team to win by a specific number of points / goals, or they must not lose by a specific number of points / goals in a given game, half, period, quarter, etc.
 - b. Money line – A wager on the winner in a given game, half, period, quarter, etc.
 - c. Over/Under Totals – A wager on the total points, goals, events, etc. that occur within a game, half, period, quarter, etc.
 - d. Parlay – A single sports wager that involves two or more bets combined into one. This can include point spreads, money lines, totals, futures, or even prop bets, as long as the bets are on different games.
 - e. Round Robin – A wager that allows the user to create a series of smaller parlays from a larger list of selections.
 - f. Proposition – A wager based on occurrences or non-occurrences during a sporting event. Unlike point spreads, totals or straight-up wagers, these incidents may not affect the outcome of the game or even the final score. These wagers can be offered for teams, players and games.
 - g. Teasers – A wager that is similar to placing a parlay bet, but the bettor may alter point spreads and over/under totals between 4 and 10 points depending on the sport and teaser (Typically offered only on football and basketball)
 - h. Match-ups – A wager similar to a money line, but will be used to typically describe a wager between two individuals (golf, auto racing, tennis, boxing, etc) rather than in a game with teams.
 - i. Futures - A wager on an event, series or an award that will finish in the future.
 - j. Live/In Game – A wager placed on a game while the game is being played. An In Game wager can be placed on a number of types of wagers like Spread, Money line, Totals and/or Props.
- 31. Payout Calculations for wager types are as follows:
 - a. Straight payoff: To calculate the payout for a straight wager, add 1 to the corresponding decimal odds of a wager and multiply by the stake to determine the total payout (win + stake) of the wager. For example the total payout of a $50 wager at -110 odds is calculated as $(1 + (100/110)) * $50 = \95.45 .

- b. Moneyline payoff: The money line is expressed as a 3-digit number. For example, -120 means a player must wager $120 for every $100 they wish to win, and multiples thereof, and +150 means a player will win $150 for every $100 wager. Moneylines will be converted to corresponding decimal odds, which shall be used to determine the amount the wager will pay out as follows:
 - To convert a negative moneyline to its corresponding decimal odds, divide 100 by the positive value of the moneyline- a moneyline of -110 would result in .909 (ex. $100 / 110 = .909$).
 - To convert a positive moneylines to their corresponding decimal odds, divide the moneyline by 100 - a moneyline of +150 would result in 1.50 (ex. $150/100 = 1.50$).
- c. Parlay payoff: To calculate the payout for a parlay wager, add 1 to the corresponding decimal odds of each event of the parlay and multiply by the stake to determine how much the wager will pay out. For example a $100 two event parlay with odds of -110 and +120 is calculated as $(1 + (100/110)) * (1 + (120/100)) * $100 = $420$.
- d. Parlay cards: If available, odds will be as stated on the Sports Book's parlay card wagering form.
- e. Teaser payoff: If available, odds are derived from a fixed payout chart.

32. Results and Sports Book wager settlement

- a. General Where the Individual Sports Rules (or the Sports Book's betting sheets or other official printed wagering information and media) do not specify how and on what basis a Sports Book wager will be settled, wagers will be settled on the official result of the applicable governing body regardless of any subsequent disqualification or amendment to the result.
- b. If no official result of an applicable governing body is available, the result will be determined by the Sports Book using information from independent sources. In such cases, if any new information comes into the public domain within 48 hours of settlement, then the Sports Book shall determine, in its sole discretion, either:
 - whether the Sports Book wager should be reinstated or resettled in light of this new information; or
 - whether or not to wait for further information before deciding whether to reinstate or resettle the Sports Book wager. Except where the Sportsbook has announced that it is waiting for further information, any information that comes into the public domain more than 48 hours after a Sports Book wager has been settled shall not be considered by the Sportsbook (regardless of whether or not such information may have led to a different result).
- c. In the event of any uncertainty about any result or potential result, the Sports Book reserves the right to suspend settlement of any Sports Book wager for an unlimited period until the uncertainty can be resolved to the reasonable satisfaction of the Sports Book. The Sports Book reserves the right to deem any Sports Book wager as "No Action" if the uncertainty regarding settlement cannot be resolved to the Sports Book's reasonable satisfaction.
- d. Non-Runners Rule. Unless stated otherwise in the General Rules, in the Individual Sports Rules or within the Sports Book's betting sheets or other official printed wagering information and media, and subject to management's discretion, Sports Book wagers are accepted and offered on an “all-in compete or not” basis. This means that, if a player, team or other competitor is withdrawn from an event (whether he, she or it pulls out of the event, is suspended or disqualified from it or otherwise) before he, she or it has taken part in the event, then any Sports Book wager placed on that player, team or competitor (as applicable) will be deemed a losing wager. If a player, team or other competitor has taken any part in a sports event once it has officially started and then fails to complete that event for any reason, any Sports Book wager placed on that player, team or other competitor will be deemed live or “Action” (i.e. wagers on that player, team or other competitor will not be deemed “No Action” and will not be refunded).

33. In the case of a pandemic or unforeseen natural occurrence, the Sport Book has the discretion to void, cancel, restrict or otherwise alter or adjust the payout of affected wagers.

A) General Rules

This set of Terms and Conditions govern the use of the “Operator” Sportsbook. When placing a bet with “Operator”, the Client is therefore agreeing that he/she has read, understood and will be adhering to these Terms and Conditions.

“Operator” reserves the right to make changes to the betting limits, sportsbook offer, payout limits and website at its sole and absolute discretion.

“Operator” reserves the right to change the Terms and Conditions and Sports rules at any time for several reasons including but not limited to:

- a) Comply with applicable laws and regulations,
- b) Regulatory requirements.

The most up to date Sports rules will be available on the website. You will be notified in advance for material changes to the Terms and may require you to re-confirm acceptance to the updated terms before the proceeding. Once accepted, the use of the “Operator” service is continued under the new terms and conditions. If you object to any such changes, you must immediately stop using the Service provided by “Operator”, withdraw all your available funds and close the account.

A void bet is a bet which is cancelled (settled with odds 1.00), and the stake is being fully returned to the customer.

1. Placing Bets

- 1.1 “Operator” reserves the right to decline part or all the requested wager.
- 1.2 Customer is solely responsible to ensure that the details of requested wager are correct.

- 1.3 Customer cannot cancel or change any placed wager when the transaction is completed. He/she can cash out the bet when cash out functionality is available.
- 1.4 "Operator" reserves the right to void any wager at its sole discretion.

2. Confirmation of a bet

- 2.1 A placed bet is not valid until it is validated and shown in the customer open bets.
- 2.2 Valid bets have a unique transaction code (bet id)
- 2.3 In cases of uncertainty about the validity of a bet, the customer may review their transactions in relevant section of the site after each placed bet in order to ensure that all requested wagers/bets were accepted.
- 2.4 "Operator" does not take responsibility for missing or duplicate bets made by the Customer.
- 2.5 In case a bet is accepted by technical error, when there are not enough funds in customers' accounts or "Operator" has not received the full payment, the bet will be void.
- 2.6 Should a dispute arise about the acceptance or the lack of any transaction, the transaction logs will be the ultimate authority in deciding such matters.

3. Settlement of bets

- 3.1 "Operator" reserves the right to remove or suspend a market/event at any given time. When a market is suspended the requested bets will be rejected.
- 3.2 Potential winnings/returns on the bet slip is for information only. Potential winnings/returns are reduced every time one of the selections is deemed void (push) or 'non-runner'. Bet settlement will be done based on the rest of the selections.
- 3.3 Winnings from settled wagers/bets are added to the balance of customers account.
- 3.4 "Operator" reserves the right to withhold payment and/or void the bets for the specific event, if we have evidence that the events integrity has been jeopardized, or the event has been manipulated (odds manipulation, match rigging etc.). Evidence of the above may be based on the size of stakes, the volume and/or pattern of bets placed. A decision given by the relevant governing body of the sport in question (if any) will be conclusive.
- 3.5 "Operator" reserves the right to conduct an internal investigation on repetitive bets of the same account, or a syndicate of accounts, all containing the same outcomes. During the investigation time, "Operator" reserves the right to withhold payment of such bets and/or void such bets.
- 3.6 "Operator" reserves the right to void bets when:
 - We have evidence to believe have placed after an outcome is already known, or after the backed selection has gained an advantage (e.g. a goal scored in the backed selection's advantage or an incident in which a penalty has been awarded by VAR decision and is subsequently scored).

- Pre-match Bet was placed after the event has started or after a related event was underway and conditions could have been altered in a direct and indisputable way.
- Bet was received with incorrect prices due to delayed or failing live coverage.
- Bet is on obviously wrong prices or line/spread/total/handicap (deviation more than 100% of market price).
- Bet was accepted after an incident that should affect odds has happened (e.g. bets placed on total goals or next goal while a penalty has been awarded).
- Bet is received on odds which represented a different score than the actual.
- Bet is accepted on an already known outcome.
- Bet is placed after a public announcement has occurred in relation to the bet which affects significantly the odds (e.g. on transfer specials an announcement on media that a player will sign contract).
- Bet is received on an incorrect fixture; bets on fixtures quoting wrong participants, i.e. teams or players
- Wrong participant is quoted for any match or event. Bets placed on that participant will be void. "Operator" reserves the right to cancel bets on other affected outcomes.
- a match does not follow the sports generally accepted format and rules (e.g. unusual period length or match duration, points counting procedure, format of a match, less than the maximum allowed players, distance of a race, amounts of periods etc.);
- Bets placed while website was encountering technical problems, which otherwise would have not been accepted.
- The outcome of a market cannot be verified officially (e.g. in case of an abandoned coverage of a game that played regularly).
- Odds have been offered and bets accepted due to an error ("Error" is a mistake, misprint, misinterpretation, mishearing, misreading, mistranslation, spelling mistake, technical hazard, registration Error, transaction Error, manifest Error, force majeure and/or similar.)
- Multiple / Parlay bets that combine different selections within the same event are not accepted where the outcome of one affect or is affected by the other. If such a bet (related contingency) is taken in error, the bet will be cancelled.

3.7 We reserve the right to delay the settlement of an outcome or an event until an official confirmation is published.

3.8 In case of an incorrect settlement of markets, we reserve the right to correct them anytime.

3.9 When a problematic bet, which meet one of the criteria mentioned above (3.6), occurs and/or is identified during live betting or after the event has finished, the bet should not get cashed out. If the cash out bet settlement has been accepted, "Operator" reserves the right to reverse cash out or/and cancel bet.

3.10 Sports reasons bet cancellation:

Unless otherwise stated, in the betting offer or in the special rules of each sport

- If a match is not completed or not played (e.g. through disqualification, interruption, withdrawal, changes in draws etc.) all undecided markets are considered void
- The event or tournament is cancelled or declared void.

- Head to Head (H2H) bets: If one or more participants withdraw before they have started the event/tournament.
 - 3.11 In a combo/multi bet, the cancelled event selection is set to odds 1.00 and the overall bet odds is adjusted accordingly. Stakes on single bets are returned and accounts refunded. In parlays the selection is treated as a void / push and, as an example, a 4-team parlay would become a 3-team parlay. In case of technical difficulties for the Operator to cancel a bet, the Operator reserves the right to deduct any invalid winnings from the bet winnings.
 - 3.12 “Operator” reserves the right to amend, suspend or remove Cash Out availability at any time on any market or to any customer.
 - 3.13 In the event of an error in the odds, the affected selection/s may not be Cashed Out. If Cash Out has been accepted in error, then the Cash Out transaction will be made void. In case bet is a combo the selection(s) with wrong odds will be settled as void and the remaining parts of the original bet will be settled on the final result.
 - 3.14 Where an ‘error’ results in an incorrect amount being offered that is subsequently Cashed Out, then the Cash Out transaction will be made void and the original bet will be settled on the final result with the correct prices applied to the bet.
 - 3.15 If further attempts are made to place bets or cash out on markets that are affected by an error before the error is corrected, then Cashed Out amount and the stakes will be made void.
 - 3.16 Customers cannot cancel or change a bet once the bet has been placed and confirmed. The Cashout feature is to be used at the customer discretion when available.
 - 3.17 “Operator” reserves the right to withhold payment and to declare bets on an event void if we have evidence that the following has occurred: a) the integrity of the event has been called into question or b) match-fixing has taken place. Evidence may be based on the size, volumes or pattern of bets placed with “Operator” across any or all our betting channels.

4. Dead-Heat rule

When two or more selections share one of the places “Operator” permits the entry of win dead-heat and place dead-heat reductions, which are fractions indicating by how much the returns to the bettor are reduced.

If two, or more, selections finish in the same position, the stake will be divided proportionally. A Dead heat is calculated by dividing the stake proportionally between the number of winners in the event. In a two-way Dead-heat (2 winners), your return will be half of what it could have been. Dead-heat rules are that it is the stake that is halved not the betting odds. In a three-way tie / dead-heat then the stake would be reduced to one third of the original stake. A $3 bet placed at 2.5 odds would become a $1 bet placed at 2.5.

When calculating how many places are paid, “Operator” counts as many selections as there are places, unless there is a dead heat for the last available place. So, if three places are offered and two selections dead-heat for first, the next-finishing selection takes third place. However, if there are three places and three selections dead-heat for third, “Operator” pays out on all five selections finishing in the top three places.

Dead-heat rules apply to the stake and not to the odds.

Example:

The final positions in golf competition are the following:

1st Position: Player A -20

2nd Position: Player B -18

3rd Position: Player C -16

3rd Position: Player D -16

3rd Position: Player E -16

6th Position: Player F -17

7th Position: Player G -15

8th Position Player H -14

- a) Bet on Player E (each way 1-2-3): 3rd position is shared by 3 players C, D and E so the payment will be $\frac{1}{3}$ stake X each way odds
- b) Bet was placed on Player E (each way 1-2-3-4): 3rd and 4th (not really 4th position since there are 3 players in 3rd position) positions are shared by 3 players. Two positions pay, out of the 3 players who reached those positions: $\frac{2}{3}$ stake X each way odds.

5. Each Way (EW) bets

An Each-Way bet is a bet consisting of two parts: one bet for the selection to Win and one for the selection to Place. For the Win part of the bet the selection must finish first. For the Place part of the bet, the selection must either win or finish in one of the specified top places for the event, such as first place or second place (usually up to 5th position).

Each way bet consists of 2 equal stake bets. For example, a $100 each way bet means your total stake is $200; $100 on the Win, $100 on the Place = $200.

The odds on the Place part of the bet are calculated as a fraction of the winning selection odds: $\frac{1}{2}$, $\frac{1}{3}$, $\frac{1}{4}$, $\frac{1}{5}$.

If selected outcome finishes 1st, both the win and place parts of the bet will return a profit.

If your selected outcome does not win, but finishes within the specified places, then you will receive pay-out on the place terms.

Example:

You bet Dustin Johnson Each-Way for Golf US Masters:

$100 Each Way at a price of 20/1. Stake = $200.

The Each-Way terms of the US Masters are 'Top Six places at 1/5 of the odds'.

Scenario Dustin Johnson wins:

Win: $100 at 20/1 pays $2100 ($100 x 20 = $2000 plus your $100 stake back).

Placed: A fifth of 20/1 is 4/1 (20 divided by 5) so the place part of the bet is paid as $100 at 4/1 = $400 ($100 x 4 = $400 plus your $100 stake back).

Total Returns: WIN plus PLACE = $2100 plus $500 = $2600.

If Dustin Johnson does not win but places, then you just get the place returns of $500, while the win part of your bet is lost.

6. Maximum Payouts

The maximum winnings classified in the table below:

Results are taken from those published by the official governing body and in the absence of these, for example In-Play, from "Operator" feed provider. "Operator" recognizes those results achieved on the field. Results awarded by a sport federation without action and results decided by the outcome of disciplinary measures from the sport federation or another court of law over 24 hours after an event has finished are not considered.

Sports	Payable limits
Baseball Basketball Football Hockey Boxing MMA Golf Soccer Tennis	$250,000 for any question relating to a match (fight or round), to the performance of a team or tennis player or golf player during a season, to the playoffs or to the winning team or winning player of a cup or championship (outright). 7. Accumulators/Parlays/Combo bets

Each Parlay risk limits depends on the limits of each selection of the parlay. The payout is calculated by multiplying the exact odds.

If one or more legs of the parlay are ‘no action’, cancelled or push, the odds of this selection will be 1.00 and the payout of the accumulator will be recalculated based on the remaining legs.

In case of postponement of a game which is selected in a parlay, it will follow the specific sports Term and Conditions.

“Operator” reserves the right to restrict parlays on some events at its sole and absolute discretion.

You may select up to XX legs in a parlay.

The maximum winnings for parlays are: $XXXXXX

8. Related Contingencies

A related contingency occurs when part of a transaction affects the outcome of the remainder of the bet. If the same selection is taken to win multiple events there may be special prices applicable for doubles, trebles, multiples etc.

e.g. Manchester United to be winning 1-0 at half time and Manchester United to win the match 2-1 (after 90 mins) Providing a market was available on the first part of the bet i.e. Manchester United to be winning 1-0 at half time then a related double price will be calculated. Where no price was available the bet will be settled as split stake singles (This bet type can be found under “builder” “Operator” reserves the right to void related multiple bets. For example, Tiger Roll to win the Grand National and Tiger Roll to win the Grand National by over 5 lengths is not a legitimate double and if accepted in error would be made void.

9. Cash out

Cash Out allows the opportunity to fully settle or partially settle a bet at the displayed value ("Cash Out") before the market is resulted.

Bets will not be placed with the sole intention to Cash Out, as availability is never guaranteed.

Single and Multiple bets placed both pre-match and in-play are eligible to Cash Out.

Cash Out is only available on bets where all selections placed are from eligible markets.

A Cash Out offer is subject to a time delay; price changes or market suspensions during this time may result in a new Cash Out Offer being made, or in the suspension or removal of the Cash Out Offer on that selection or market at that time.

The Cash Out offer considers the following factors: selection, prices taken, current bet status.

Once a successful Cash Out message is returned for a full Cash Out, the bet is settled immediately and deemed final. No further event outcome will contribute to that bet.

Bets that qualify for bonuses OPERATOR TO DEFINE WHAT BONUSES ARE OFFERED] will not have the bonus applied in addition to the Cash Out offer. Cash Out acceptance is final.

10. Refusal of Bet

"Operator" reserves the right to refuse any bet that is submitted to us, without giving a reason.

If we are willing to accept a part of a bet or accept a bet but at different odds or terms, we will always propose a revised bet which you can then decide to accept or decline. There will always be a limited time within which you must make this decision and if you do not respond in time the bet will not be placed.

B) Main markets rules

Bets on "Half / Period / Quarter/ Set/ Game/ Map/ Round etc. " refer to the result achieved in the relevant timeframe. This does not include any other goals/points/runs etc. achieved from other parts of the event. Overtime period is excluded unless otherwise is stated.

1. Money Line /Winner

Predict the winner of the game. The option of a draw is removed, and market is offered with 2 outcomes (Team A vs Team B or Player A vs Player B). Bets on Player or Team to win an event include overtime if played. Bets on a Player or Team to win an Inning, Game, Set, Period, Quarter, Half and Map bets do not include overtime unless otherwise is stated (please check specific sport betting rules).

If the game or relevant timeframe ends in a draw bets will be void and full stake will be refunded (push or no action).

2. Match Result/ 3-way Money line

Predict the winner of the game. Market has 3 outcomes and draw option is offered (Team A or Player A, Draw, Team B or Player B). Bets do not include overtime period.

3. Draw no Bet

Predict which team will be the winner. Draw no bet is similar to Winner and Money line market but overtime period is excluded unless otherwise is stated. In case of a draw, all bets will be void and full stake will be refunded.

4. Spread and Handicap Markets

Predict the winner of the game, applying the given spread (handicap). In handicap betting, a team is awarded a “virtual” goal/points/set/games advantage. This advantage will be added to the official final result for grading purposes.

Depending sport, Spread is applied on points, goals, sets, games. There are 2 major categories of Handicap markets;

- a) 2-way Handicap
- b) 3-way handicap

2-way Handicap market name varies per sport and are the following:

2-way handicap	Sport
Point Spread	American Football, Basketball,
Puck Line	Ice Hockey
Handicap	Aussie Rules, Basketball 3x3, Beach Volleyball, Esports, Soccer, Futsal, Handball, Rugby League, Rugby Union, Snooker, Table Tennis, Tennis, Volleyball etc.
Run Line	Baseball
Asian handicap	Soccer

Examples:

- 1) American Football. (Team A) +3 vs (Team B) -3. We place a bet of 100$ on Team B to win. Team B must win the game with a margin more than 3 for the bet to win. If Team B wins with exact 3 points bets are considered as void and stakes are refunded. If Team wins or lose game by less than 3 points bets on Team B are lost.
- 2) Basketball: (Team A) -2.5 vs (Team B) +2.5. We place a bet of 100e on Team B +2.5. Bets win if Team B wins or lose by 2 points or less. If Team B lose by 3 or more points bet is lost.

Asian handicap: The Asian Line is a special type of handicap used for Soccer matches. Depending on the strength of each team, a handicap is awarded. This enables the odds for each side to be more similar. All bets on the Asian Handicap in live betting (including 1st/2nd half bets/ extra time/ 1st half extra time and 2nd half extra time) are settled according to the score line. Any goals prior to the bet being placed are ignored for settlement purposes.

Matches can be handicapped in $\frac{1}{2}$ and $\frac{1}{4}$ intervals as to eliminate the possibility of a push since no one can score a half-goal. Quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) handicaps split the bet between the two closest $\frac{1}{2}$ intervals. For instance, a \$100 bet with a handicap of $1\frac{3}{4}$ (or 1,75) is the same as betting \$50 at $1\frac{1}{2}$ (or 1,5) and \$50 at 2. With $\frac{1}{4}$ handicap bets, you can win and draw (win $\frac{1}{2}$ of wager) or lose and draw (lose $\frac{1}{2}$ wager). The $\frac{1}{4}$ -goal handicap may be expressed as "0,25" or "0 and $\frac{1}{4}$ ", or as "pk and $\frac{1}{4}$ ".

The bettor's stake is automatically divided equally and placed as 2 separate bets. This means that with a handicap point of 0-0.5 or 0 and $\frac{1}{2}$, half of your stake is on the 0-point handicap and the other half is on the 0.5 handicap.

Example:

Match: Team A vs Team B

Handicap: Team B +1.0, +1.5 (or +1.75)

This handicap states that half of our bet goes on Team A to win, draw, or lose by less than 1 goal; and half on Team B to win, draw, or lose by less than 1.5 goals.

If the final score is Team A 1-0 Team B, half your bet would be refunded due to draw (Team B lost by exactly one goal). The second half would win (Team B lost by less than 1.5 goals).

In a 3-way Handicap, the line is set so that there is also a draw outcome.

Example:

Team A vs Team B.

Team A Handicap (-2): Bet will win if Team A wins the match with a goal difference of three or more.

Tie (-2): Bet will win if Team A with (-2) Handicap wins the match with exactly 2 goals difference.

Team B Handicap (+2) - Bet will win if Team A loses or draws or wins by 1 goal.

Example:

Handicap (-2) - You will win if your team wins the match with a goal difference of three or more.

Tie (-2) - You will win if the team with (-2) Handicap wins the match with exactly 2 goals difference.

Handicap (+2) - You will win if your team loses / draws / wins by 1 goal.

Example 1

Team A vs Team B basketball. Event Total points Over/Under on 203.5 points. We place a bet on over 203.5 points. Our bet will win only when total points score by both teams will be more than 203.5 points.

Example 2

Player A vs Player B Tennis. We bet on 1st set total games over 10.5. Our bet will win if first game finished with at least 11 games played, otherwise bet is lost.

Example 3

Team A vs Team B Handball. We bet on total goals Team A under 30.5. Our bet will win if Team A scores 30 goals or less, otherwise bet is lost.

In a 3-way total, the line is set so that there is also an 3rd outcome (equal or exact).

Example

Team A vs Team B Ice hockey. Event Total has 3 outcomes: over 5 goals, under 5 goals or equal to 5 goals.

6. Double Chance

A Double Chance market allows you to cover two of the three possible outcomes in a game with one bet. The following options are available:

- 1 or X - if the result is either a home win or a draw then bets on this option are winners.
- X or 2 - if the result is either a draw or an away win then bets on this option are winners.
- 1 or 2 - if the result is either a home win or an away win then bets on this option are winners.

7. Winning Margin

Predict the team to win the match and the margin of victory.

Example 1: American Football, Team A vs Team B. If we believe that it will be a close match, but Team A will win, we can select Team A to win by 1-6 points Margin. By this, our bet wins if Team A win by 1 up to 6 points. If Team A wins by 7 points or more our bet will lose.

Example 2: Basketball Team A vs Team B. If we believe that Team A will easily win, we are able to place a bet on Team A to win by 21 or more points. Bet will win only if Team A wins by 21+ points difference.

8. Half-time/Full-Time

Predict the result of a match at halftime and at the end of regular time. In baseball, half time is defined the first 5 innings of a game. The possible outcomes of this market are the following (Half Time result / Full Time result):

Home Team / Home Team

Home Team / Draw

Home Team / Away Team

Draw / Home Team

Draw / Draw

Draw / Away Team

Away Team / Away Team

Away Team / Draw

Away Team / Home Team

Example 1:

In a soccer event Team A vs Team B, we chose 1/X. Our bet will win if home team will lead in the first half and the match ends in a draw. Extra time and penalty shootouts do not count.

9. Race to X

Predict which team will be the first to score X points in the game. Race market may also refer to Runs (Baseball), Corners (Soccer), Games (Tennis), Goals (Handball), Frames (Snooker) etc.

Race to X can be offered for the game or a period of it for instance in a Volleyball game 1st set race to X points or in a basketball game 1st quarter race to 15 points.

In 2-way market, selections are home and away team (or Player 1, Player 2). If a match ends before any team reaches the specific number of points, the market is considered cancelled and stakes are refunded. In 3-way market except home and away there is the none option.

10.Highest scoring half/quarter/period

Predict in which half/quarter/period most points/goals will be scored. If two or more quarters/periods or halves have the same highest score, then Dead-heat rule apply unless equal outcome is offered.

11.Odd/Even

Predict if accumulated goals/points/runs will add up to an odd or even number. When there is a zero score (for example no goals scored on a soccer game), will count as Even for settlement purposes. If a game is abandoned, bets will be void, unless an outcome is already determined. The market will be settled according to specific T&C of each sport.

Example 1:

Baseball Team A vs Team B. We place a bet on Odd. Our bet will win only if the total number of accumulated runs in the game will add up to an odd number.

12.To Qualify / Win the Cup / Advance to next round/ Win the Group or Division.

One-leg match: If the referee abandons a match (e.g. due to crowd disturbances, unplayability of the pitch, or one team not having enough players to continue) bets will be settled based on decisions of the relevant governing body.

13.Division betting

In case of a change in the official competition rules, during the competition, bets will be considered as void (for example if the number of teams relegated changes).

For settlement purposes, dead-heat rule will apply in the event of two or more teams tying in the standings. Bets will stand on any team which does not complete all its fixtures. The only exception to this is for South American leagues, where a play-off is played to determine the league winner when teams are tied 1st on points. In this case, we will deem the league winner to be the winner of the subsequent play-off. If a team is removed from the league before the season has started, then all bets on that market will be made void. If a team is removed or excluded during the season, due to any external reasons (for example due to debt) then all bets concerning this team will be cancelled and settled as void.

14. Head-To-Head (H2H) and Triple head (H3H) betting

Predict which one of the teams/competitors in the Head-To-Head gets the best finishing result/position/points. Both participants in a H2H have to start for bets to stand, and at least one of the participants has to finish with an official result. Otherwise all bets will be void and full stakes will be refunded.

For H3H the same rules apply, only in a H3H there will be 3 competitors/teams available to select.

Season H2H: Predict which team/participant will get the highest final position in a competition. Play-offs are not included unless stated otherwise.

Markets will be settled according to the official standings of the governing body.
